

ANNA CAREY
CLAUDIA DE SALVO
ANJA LOUGHEAD
MONIQUE MONTFROY
MILLAN PINTOS-LOPEZ
KAEL STACE

Curated by David Broker and Rebecca Ross

Exhibition assistant Chris Bennie

A joint project between THE WALLS and Canberra Contemporary Art Space

Exhibition continues until 8 October, 2016

Exhibition travels to Canberra Contemporary Art Space 9 – 27 December, 2016

A townhouse, a duplex, a small studio at the back of a duplex, an apartment and now a converted fibro shack.

What’s of interest here?

The complex also has a pool for those long summer days.

The sweeping view provides a relaxing aspect; perfect for unwinding after a long day.

I find myself bamboozled

HI SKY

That particular place (the apartment) was north facing.

I sleep in my van.

Safely grounded at street level.

This talk is laced with a plethora of slick promotional videos, but little evidence of the layered and complex dynamism requisite of a community addressing its own implicit geographic, social, and demographic needs - although there's more cafe's than ever before.

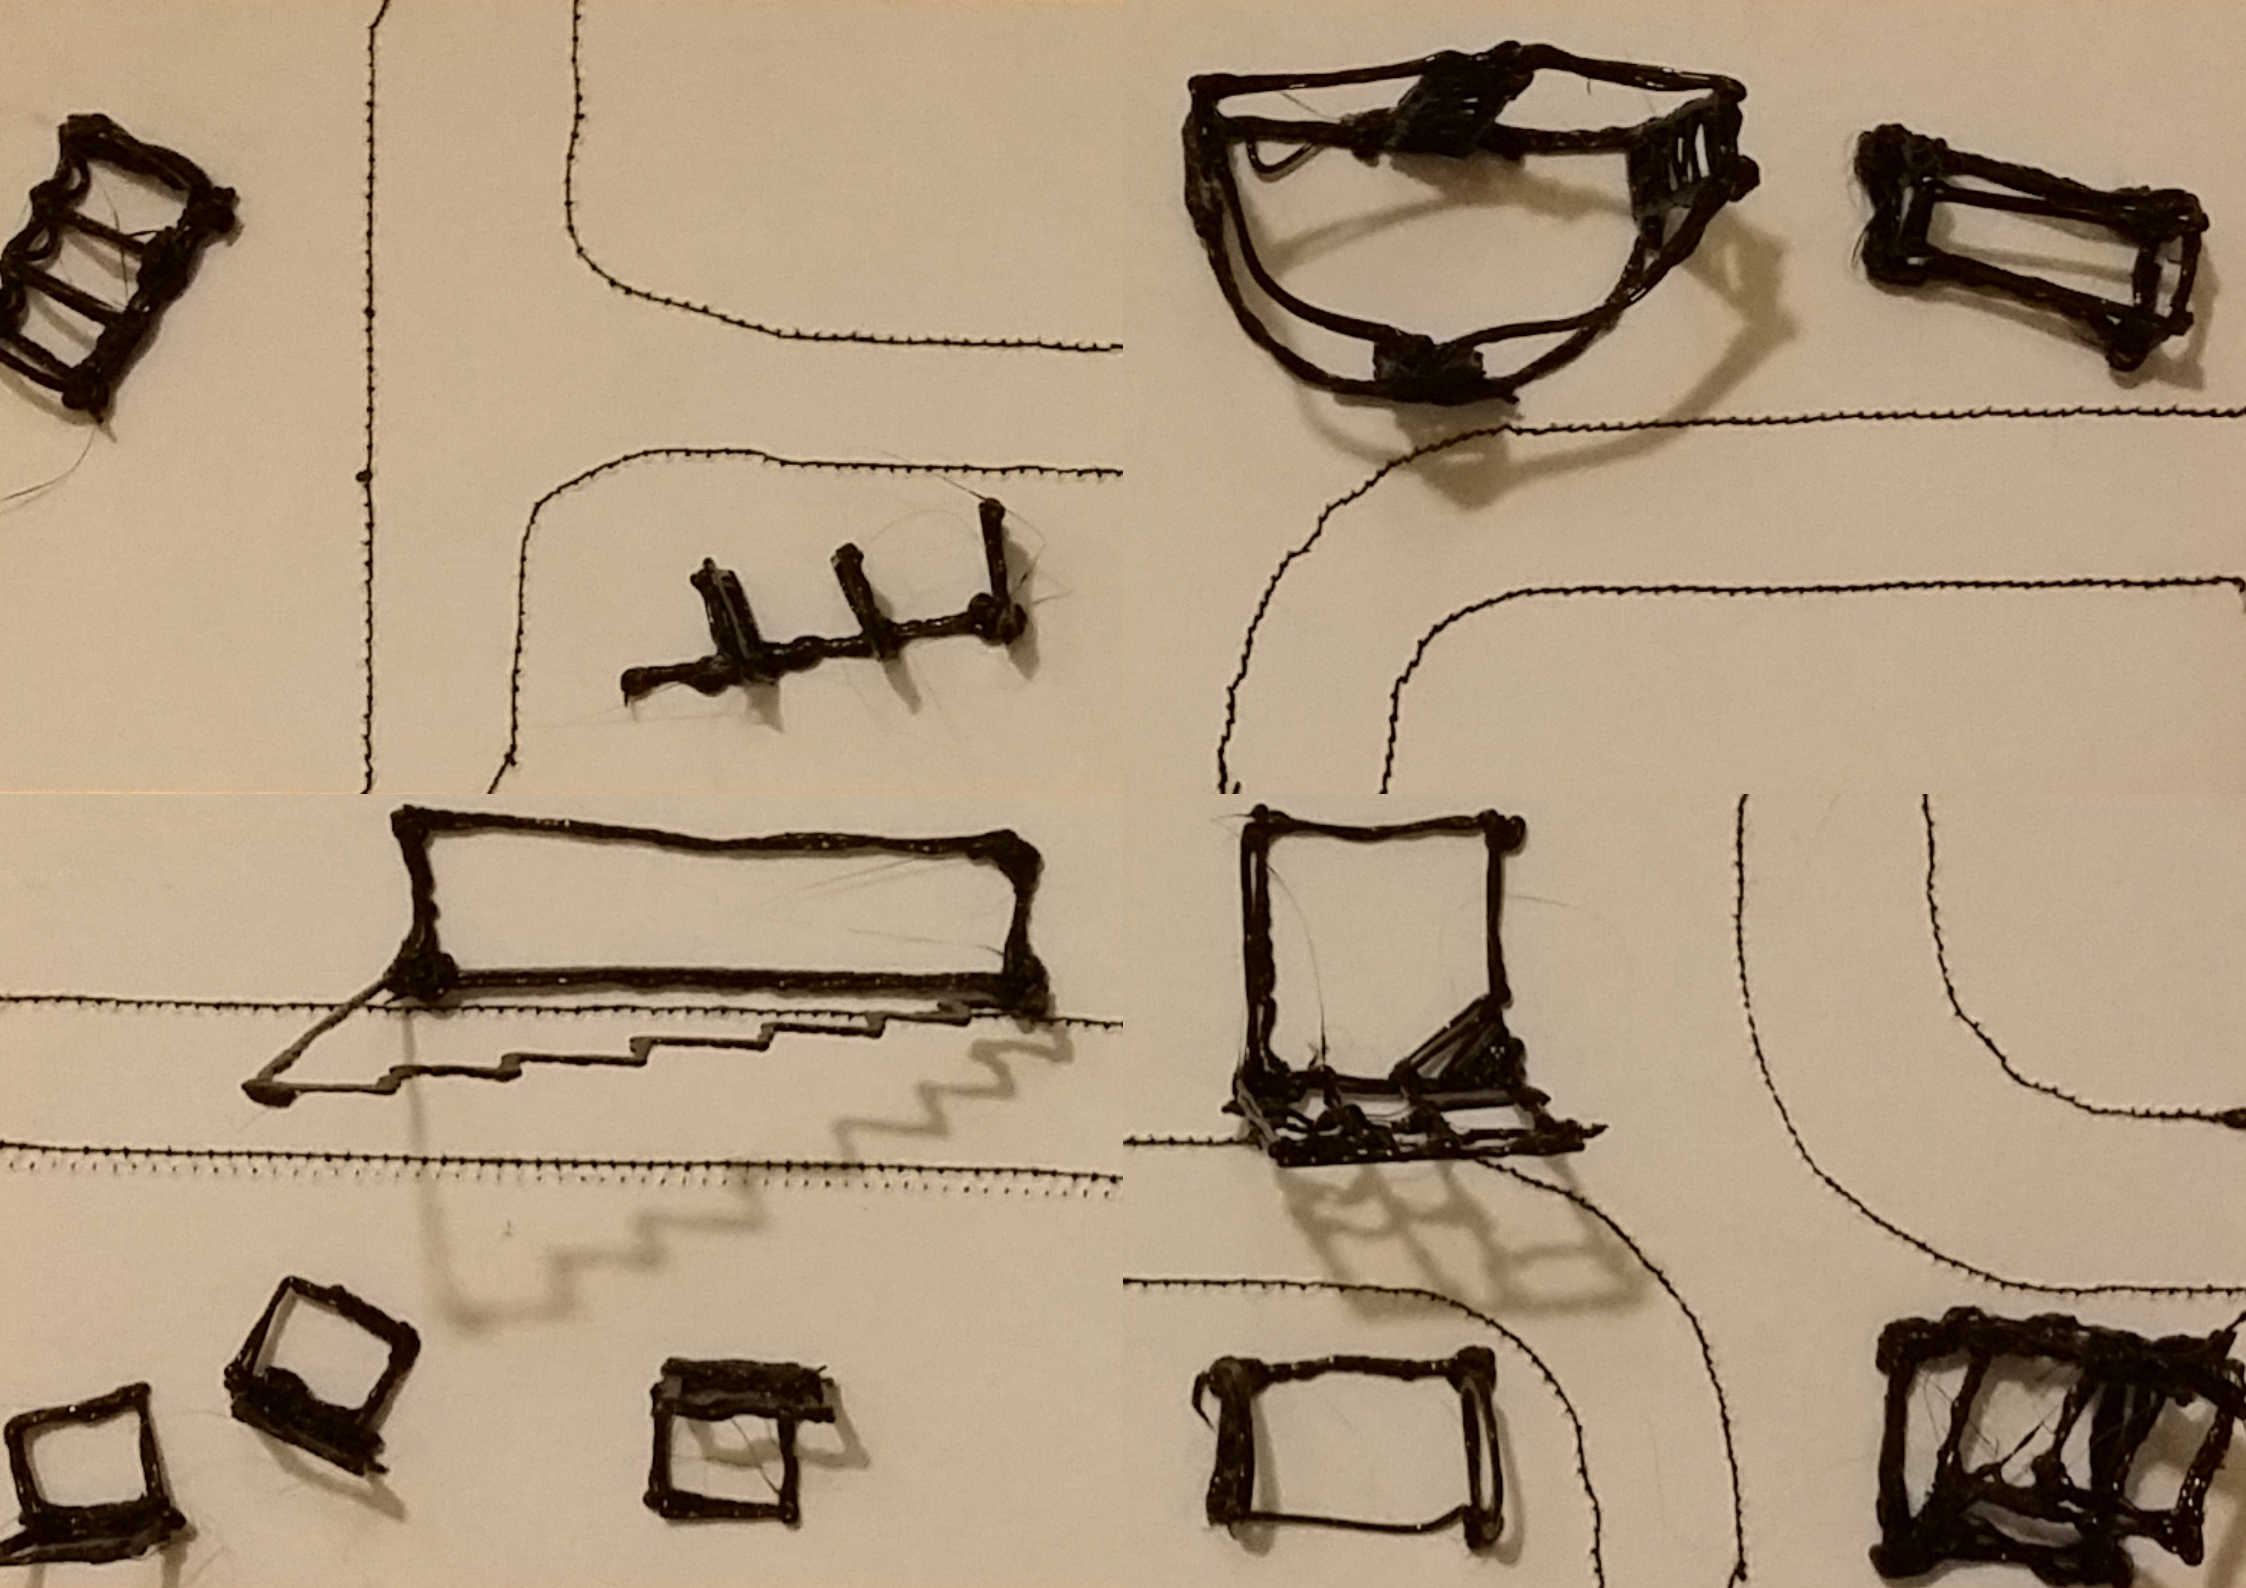

To keep you comfortable all year round there is a large reverse cycle split-system...
It's a strangely beautiful thing when buildings reflect light like crystals might.

Each of them sat comfortably close to terra ferma.

High rises, low rises and in-between rises.

I had to climb two flights of stairs home.

the culture, its developments and opportunities.

Located in the heart of Canberra, this bright and airy apartment features...

Initiatives that group artists and creatives together to discuss ideas take place every other week. I went to one. It was called 2970 degrees. I think its a reference to the boiling point of something?

From its balcony I could see the Surfers Paradise skyline protruding stoically, glistening gold as the sun set on glass and steel.

Be the first to occupy this brand new one bedroom, plus study executive apartment situated on level one of the sought after IQ complex, offering all the mod cons and convenience of city living.

Q1

How did I end up here?

I don't think I am a typical Gold Coast type.

I like the ocean and I live near it.

I never tire of turning into my street and sensing the ocean at the end of my road.

I'm frequently told how great it is here, especially the culture, its developments and opportunities.

There are a heap of commercial galleries,
People think I surf....

This large 3 bedroom 1st floor apartment has plenty of space to relax in.

There's lots of money for that kind of thing.

Pacific Fair and Sheraton Mirage.

Conveniently located within walking distance to local shops and only minutes away from Cooleman Court Shopping Centre plus the arterial roads to the City, Barton, Woden or Tuggeranong as well as the Mt. Stromlo bike and walking tracks.

...pictures, mostly paintings, the occasional photograph, small sculptures, that sort of thing.

I'm not convinced though.

I remember seeing at this one place in Pac Fair a whole bunch of dolphin paintings in blue painted frames with seashells glued onto them.

Entertain outdoors under a covered deck at the front of the house and a paved pergola area in the backyard.

Come and enjoy this three bedroom home with a sunny outlook situated in a quiet and tranquil, kid friendly street.

The master bedroom features an ensuite and you'll be cosy for those frosty Canberra nights with electric heating.

...Saturday nights Orchid Ave.

I went to one.

Stunning, spacious and stylish top floor 2 bedroom apartment ideally situated in...

Floating bamboo timber flooring throughout the living.

Does Canberra have High Rises?

Does the Gold Coast have Low Rises?

Together with a lovely leafy outlook this apartment is sure to please.

This beautiful apartment is finished to a high standard with quality inclusions and neutral tones throughout.

